Hip to be square

Purchase some highly original artwork while giving money to a worthy cause: sometimes life throws up an easy decision. Cure² is a new art project aiming to raise awareness and funds for the charity, The Cure Parkinson's Trust (CPT). Devised by Artwise in partnership with Bonhams and the David Ross Foundation, each of the featured artists has been invited to create an artwork using a 20cm³ Perspex box – and their ability to think outside it.

The box serves as a space to frame, support or contain each work, allowing for multiple approaches and interpretations. The artists were provided with three key words – slow, stop, reverse – to ensure the works were thematically linked to one another and the key objectives of CPT.

These unique works will be sold at
